

Can you be sure that all your corporate security policies are being properly followed?

HELICAL OverWatch

Don't just trust... OverWatch will validate that your cloud and endpoint security is configured in compliance with your IT security policies.

- Real time, simplified visibility into critical security indicators across a range of hosted devices.
- Ideal for main & remote offices, independent contractors and other third party providers.
- Monitor company security policy compliance for:
 - Wi-Fi Security
 - Anti-Virus / Intrusion Prevention Systems
 - Disk Encryption
 - Vulnerability Scanning
 - Patch Management
 - Secure Configuration Monitoring
 - Authentication (password management, two factor authentication, etc.
- Reduce security management for any application, any cloud, anywhere. Reduce cloud security risks with advanced cloud security solutions.
- Real time, simplified visibility into critical security indicators across your cloud deployment.
- Ensure that your virtual devices meet best practices configuration guidelines or company security policies to ensure IT compliance.
- Monitor company cloud instance(s) on a real-time basis and whether unapproved devices or applications are attempting to access them.
- Robust reporting facilitates fine tuning of security configurations.

Our solutions are developed based on decades of regulatory, technology, and information security experience from regulated financial services and healthcare firms, as well as the legal and technology providers that service them.

Why OverWatch?

Whether you are pointing OverWatch at your endpoint devices or at your cloud instances, you will have a quick view of what policy, configuration, or other critical component is not configured in line with your corporate security policies.